

View this email in your browser

Time is running out!

Tickets selling fast.
Don't get caught out by the public holiday and miss out.

Less than a week left to register for one of the biggest Australian conferences in local government.

Ticket sales close Wednesday, 26 April 11.59pm.

No late tickets available.

ALGWA members receive 10% off.
Use code ALGWAMEMBER at checkout when booking.

Get tickets

Register and WIN

Book your tickets to the ALGWA 2023 National Conference and you'll go into the draw to win a Connect, Inspire, Thrive Peninsula Pack including:

- A $100 Best Bites voucher to a participating award-winning Best Bites retailer on the Mornington Peninsula
- A selfcare toolkit webinar from Corporate Wellbeing Hub, for a group of up to 100 at your Council or workplace.
- A copy of Fly to the Boardroom: Your Essential Guide to Getting on a Board by Stacey Daniels, founder of Board Presence and speaker at our conference.
- An additional gift of your choice from our delegate welcome gift selection.

Read our competition terms and conditions.

Book now to win!

Gender equality with Catherine Fox AM

ALGWA 2023 Speaker

We're excited that Catherine Fox AM has joined our line up of speakers.

Catherine Fox AM is an award winning journalist, author and expert on gender equity. She has consulted and presented to a wide range of organisations, including Commonwealth Bank, the Australian Defence Force, the Governance Institute and Australian Human Resources Institute.

Read more about Catherine

Mentoring and leadership

ALGWA 2023 Speaker

"For women, particularly women who work in rural and regional communities like me, an excess of advice, self-doubt and comparison often stand between them and their potential."

Leadership coach, Maree McPherson's interactive sessions will explore the value of mentoring, both from the mentee and mentor perspective. Maree will work with delegates on why mentoring is indispensable in your toolkit.

More on Maree

View the full speaker line-up

Peninsula talent abounds

We're thrilled to present local musicians.

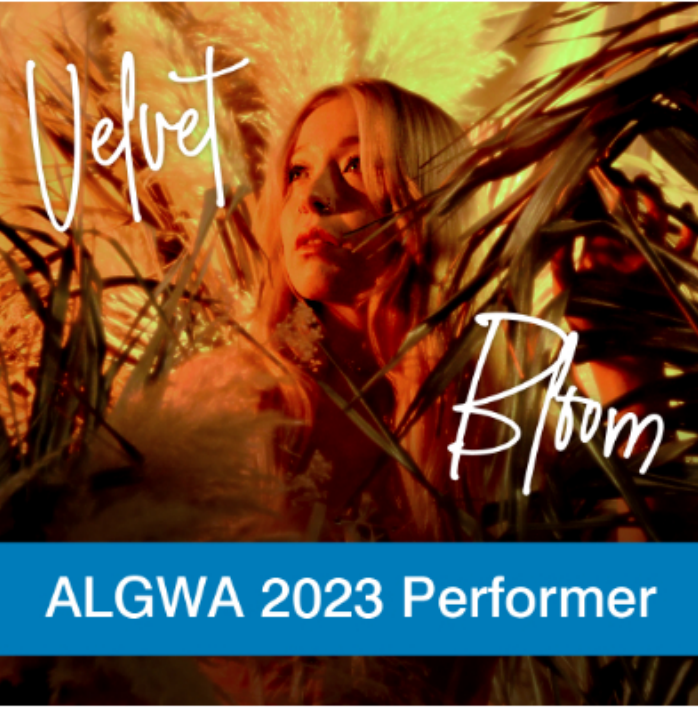

ALGWA 2023 Performer

Mietta is an acoustic indie-folk singer-songwriter based on the Mornington Peninsula. Her music captures the essence of our coastal region and the tight-knit community that surrounds her.

With performances across the Mornington Peninsula and beyond, including supporting Paul Kelly.

More about Mietta, singer-songwriter

ALGWA 2023 Performer

As part of our fantastic Gala Dinner line up, we bring you a special set by Velvet Bloom.

A literal ray of sunshine inside a human being that beams from centre stage and warms the entire room no matter where you are standing, Mornington born and raised guitarist and exquisite vocalist is Maddy Herbert aka Velvet Bloom.

Meet Velvet Bloom, who warms the room

ALGWA 2023 Performer

Rounding out the soundtrack for our Gala Dinner is DJ Hannah.

Hannah is a local DJ from the Mornington Peninsula. She invokes a sense of familiarity and playfulness with her combination of 90s dance music and funky classics!

Replay the story of DJ Hannah

Coffee lovers rejoice!

Thanks to the generous support of Leading Roles, proper, barista-made coffee will be served on Thursday.

Leading Roles are the leading people specialist for recruitment and human resources advisory services. They have a shared purpose with their clients – making a difference in communities through talented people.

Don't miss out!
17-20 May 2023

Get tickets